

Jada Pinkett Smith

Jada studied dance and choreography before turning her attention to acting, one of the reasons she moves with such grace and agility. A unique combination of delicate beauty and strength, Jada is a dynamo, alternating effortlessly, it seems between her roles as mother, wife of Will Smith, actress in films such as Ali, The Matrix Reloaded, and Collateral, children's book author, and singer in her band, Wicked Wisdom. Jada is, in a word, unstoppable.
